- In 2018 there was a meeting to address the turnover in this space. IRC said they could start the pre-apprenticeship to meet that need.

What are the next steps for those who do not make it into the apprenticeship?

- IRC assists others to find employment. They are seeing that employer connection is crucial to placement.

University of Idaho Co-operative Education Program

John Mangiantini presented on the University of Idaho Co-Operative Education Program. Please see attached presentation.

Discussion

Is a job description required?

- Yes. The job is posted in a job management system, the student applies, faculties review and approve the job, and then the students compete for the position.

Does U of I have OJT agreements with the employers?

- When the students start the program, they develop learning objectives.

Is there a minimum salary?

- 80% of the starting wage of the profession.
- The STEM Action Center assists small businesses and start-ups to pay the students.
- The Employer pays the fringe benefits.
- The students are all W-4 employees.

Could a student at a different college pay for credits?

- No. The participants are admitted juniors and seniors.

What is the rate of permanent hires?

- 3 have graduated from the program and 1 has been hired so far.

What are the criteria for being accepted into the program?

- Junior standing and 2.5 GPA. Must be in an engineering program.
- Faculty has turned students away who were not ready for the program.

Are the faculty assisting with the Co-Op assessing the competency of the students?

- The supervisor assesses the competency of the student for the work experience.
- A faculty pre- and post-assessment would be beneficial.

Idaho Apprenticeship Coalition Update

Ms. Robison, Ms. Cabrera, and Ms. O'Toole provided an Apprenticeship Coalition update.

Apprenticeship Idaho has developed an MOU between partners in the coalition. All the partners have signed the MOU's and now each individual will need to sign an MOU. This will give the individuals access to the CRM system.

Four new programs with one sponsor have been signed on. Ms. O'Toole presented on a panel at the ThinkCareer event.

There is a lot of traction with cybersecurity programs with the colleges and technical schools.

The colleges are ramping up and getting ready to hire staff to support the Closing the Skills Gap grant. They are in the final stages of getting a data management system in place across the CTE and WDC grants. The House Education Committee has received a presentation on all of the Idaho apprenticeship grants.

Discussion

Next month the Committee would like to see some of the OJT being provided.

Is there a place where people can see the WBL activities throughout the state?

- Yes. The WDC is developing a statewide map to show where there are opportunities across Idaho.

Motion by Ms. O'Toole to adjourn. Second by Ms. Robison. Motion carried.

Adjourned at 3:02 p.m.
