Sara Duncan
CS & Business Technology

Host Site: Idaho State Board of Education

"This will give students a clearer connection between what they are learning in the classroom and the choices they will make after high school.

Elizabeth Bearden
Agriculture Education

Host Site: Cascade Chamber of Commerce

"The more I can connect students with real employers, real skills, and opportunities in our community, the better prepared they will be to decide what they want their own path to look like after high school."
